Roy Orbison and Joe Melson, 1963. As sung by Linda Ronstadt Play 4 measures of D A Feel so bad, got a worried mind I'm so lonesome all the time A A7 Since I left my baby behind on Blue Bayou D A Saving nickels, saving dimes Working till the sun don't shine A A7 Looking forward to happier times on Blue Bayou. [CHORUS] D A7 I'm going back someday, come what may, to Blue Bayou, A7 Where the folks are fine, and the world is mine on Blue Bayou. D Where those fishing boats with their sails afloat. If I could only see D A That familiar sunrise through sleepy eyes, how happy I'd be. D A Gonna see my baby again Gonna be with some of my friends A A7 Saving nickels, saving dimes Working 'til the sun don't shine A A7 Saving nickels, saving dimes Working 'til the sun don't shine A A7 Cooking forward to happier times on Blue Bayou. [CHORUS] [Instrumental: first two lines of verse] [Outro - chorus melody] D7 G/ Oh, that boy of mine by my side. The silver moon and the evening tide D A D Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide D A D Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide D Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide D Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide D Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide Cooking forward to happier times on the silver moon and the evening tide	Blue Bayou
