 F                   C                   G7
 And my heart called out to you
 C                   F                   C
 But I fear you won't be like I left you
 C                   G7                C           (C7 to Bridge)
 Me ke aloha ku'u home 'o Kahalu'u

C                   F                   C           G7
 I remember days when we were wiser
 C                   F                   C           G7
 When our world was small enough for dreams
 C                   F                   C
 And you lingered there my sister
 C                   G7                C           C7   (Back to Chorus)
 And I no longer can, it seems

Bridge:        F                   C                   C7
 Change is a strange thing it cannot be denied
 F                   C
 It can help you find yourself or make you lose your pride
 F                   C                   C7
 Move with it slowly as on the road we go
 F                   G7
 Please do not hold on to me, we all must go alone

C                   F                   C
 I remember days when we were smiling
 C                   F                   C           G7
 When we laughed and sang the whole night long
 C                   F                   C           G7                C           C7
 And I would greet you as I'd find you, with a sharing of a brand new song

North Shore Serenade (Na Leo Pilimehana)

Intro: F/// Bb// C/      F/// Bb// C/

F

Come along take a ride to the isles' North Side

C7

Thru the winding iron wood trees

C7

But be sure to take care no one follows you there

F

As you're drifting along on the breeze

F

F7            Bb

For if anyone knew where I'm taking you to, they'd surely never depart

Bb            F

The magical coast I love the most

C7            F/

Nearest and dearest my heart

Refrain:

Bb            F

Oh my, oh me oh, take me down to the North Shore (echo: to the North Shore)

C            F/    F/    F7/

Where the white sand rolls in the pounding surf

NC            Bb            F

Oh, why don't we go way out to the North Shore (echo: to the North Shore)

F            Bb

Where the sky is blue and the ocean is too

C7            F    (Bb// C/ - first time only, just as in intro)

Nearest to heaven on earth (second time F/, (count 2,3,4) go to bottom Tag)

F            C7

Turn up the tunes, settle in for the ride and follow the sinking sun

C7

From the top of the hill the surf's breaking still

F

And my nerves gently start to unwind

F            F7            Bb

Every mile that I drive brings me closer to where I've always known I should be

Bb            ← F

It's not a big city but the sugarcane's pretty

C7            F/

My Beautiful home by the sea

Go to Refrain, then Tag

Tag:

Bb            F

(5 counts)

Ooh ----la la la la la —— North Shore (X3)(echo "North Shore")

F            Bb            C7            F/

Where the sky is blue and the ocean is too, Nearest to heaven on earth.

Without permission, Keli'i Tau'ā and his brother were known to take the family's Model T out in the fields of Kula, Maui. They carefully covered the car back up the way they found it, and assumed no one else knew of their driving escapades. When they admitted to these antics many years later, they were surprised when their parents said they knew all along—because the boys always neglected to wash the horse and cow manure off the wheels! The verses and chorus are usually repeated. Sources: Transcriptions from Ke Ho'omana'o Nei and Kūlewa; Damon Parrillo. Recorded by Mana'o Company (Ke Ho'omana'o Nei, 1994), Ho'omālie (Only You, 2006), Kūlewa (Kūlewa, 2010) and Keli'i Tau'ā (A Lifetime of Mele, 2012).

The melody of this mele is from the old hymn, "I Left It All with Jesus". It was made the official State Song of Hawaii in 1978; and the first verse and hui are traditionally sung at the end of Hawaiian gatherings.
