The Model T lives forever

Without permission, Keli`i Tau`ā and his brother were known to take the family's Model T out in the fields of Kula, Maui. They carefully covered the car back up the way they found it, and assumed no one else knew of their driving escapades. When they admitted to these antics many years later, they were surprised when their parents said they knew all along—because the boys always neglected to wash the horse and cow manure off the wheels! The verses and chorus are usually repeated. Sources: Transcriptions from Ke Ho`omana`o Nei and Kūlewa; Damon Parrillo.
