Based on an old chant, this song is ostensibly about the goby fish. However, since ancient times this fish has been used in chants as a metaphor for sexual activity. A distinctive characteristic of the `o`opu nui (big goby) is that its tail sticks up prominently while feeding. This is a paniolo styled song which talks about a mountain on the isle of Maui. The kaona of this song can also interpret it as being about a woman who is "lili" or jealous about a lover.
